

About the Directorate

This newly created directorate brings together a diverse range of services, led by experienced professionals committed to continuous improvement to deliver excellent services for staff, partners and the public.

Corporate Services is responsible for:

- IT
- digital customer experience
- customer services
- marketing and communications
- HR
- legal
- democratic services
- Elections